

Experience Project WET 2.0

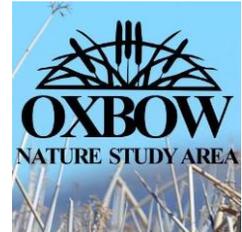

Learning and retention is improved by doing hands-on activities that bring relevant and meaningful experiences to content.

Become an Environmentally Empowered Educator!

WHERE: Oxbow Nature Center
3100 Dickerson Rd, Reno

WHEN: Thursday, July 7 9am – 4:30pm

An ENGAGING workshop filled with educational resources, tools and ideas.
An opportunity to work with other partners!

LEARN meaningful ways to instill stewardship for wildlife and natural resources.

RECEIVE resources to prepare for, organize, and lead environmental lessons in your community. Educational instruction that fosters awareness and knowledge of the our local water resources and habitats.

Register EARLY! Contact Mary Kay Wagner, 775-687-9454 mkwagner@ndep.nv.gov
Space is limited! Complete and return Registration below.

No Charge to Register. Just bring a lunch so you can be social and share your ideas with others.

NEVADA DIVISION OF
ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

Nevada Recycles
Department of Conservation & Natural Resources

Name _____

Affiliation _____

E-mail _____

Phone #s _____

Special Interest? Help us design this workshop so that YOU receive the most benefit. Prior knowledge related to water can be used to plan activities and to make concepts more relevant to you. Of the following topics, which are most important to experience in this one-day workshop:

TOPIC

- Water Science
- Water Management
- Water Quality
- Natural Event | Disasters
- Environmental Health
- Recycling

Activities which relate to

- land v water, available fresh water, water cycle
- understanding watersheds, water supply, water demand
- Nonpoint Source Pollution, chemical | biological indicators
- Activities which relate to conservation, flooding, drought
- contamination, restoration
- Waste reduction, reuse, composting

Are there other important aspects you would like addressed? Please make your suggestion below.
